Problem: You want a hands-free solution that never requires you to empty the bin after each run

Modern homes mix hardwood, tile, and low-pile carpet, and pet owners battle daily fur. Stopping to empty a tiny dustbin after every cycle defeats the purpose of automation, especially when the bin fills quickly in a pet-filled house.

Trust: Why iRobot’s 2026 lineup is a reliable choice iRobot has led the robot-vacuum market for over a decade. The Roomba 115X Combo builds on proven iAdapt 3.0 navigation, AI obstacle avoidance, and a larger-capacity auto-empty dock that now holds up to 30 days of debris for an average household.
