Problem: Keeping floors clean is a never-ending chore

Solution: Vacuum-and-mop in one, with hands-free emptying

This model’s “Combo” designation means it vacuums and mops in a single pass. The included AutoEmpty Dock automatically transfers debris to a sealed bag, so you never touch the dustbin again. Through the iRobot app you can schedule cleanings, set zone-specific rules, and control the robot with Alexa or Google Assistant.

Proof: Real-world performance and value

At $199.99 you’re saving $270 versus the original price, while still getting the same premium features. The combination of strong suction, effective mopping, and the AutoEmpty Dock addresses both the pain points of manual emptying and device switching.
