Problem: Busy households need a robot that can vacuum, mop, and empty its bin without daily intervention.

Agitate: Manually emptying a dustbin after each run defeats the convenience of a robot and can release allergens back into the air.

It uses iRobot's vSLAM navigation to map rooms, delivers up to 1,800 Pa of suction, and includes a vibrating mopping pad that tackles light stains. The AutoEmpty Dock holds up to 60 days of debris, emptying the bin automatically after each job. Wi-Fi connectivity lets you start, stop, or schedule cleaning via the iRobot Home app, Alexa, or Google Assistant.

Specs (Oct 2026): Suction ≈1,800 Pa; vibrating mopping pad; vSLAM navigation with Imprint Smart Mapping; 120 min battery runtime; auto-empty dock included; works with Alexa & Google Home; price $199.99 (original $469.99).

Verdict – Best Overall: Combines strong suction, effective mopping, and true hands-free emptying for a mid-range price.
