Why a side-by-side comparison matters in 2026

Robot vacuums now cluster around the $140-$250 range, but the technology inside varies wildly. Without a clear matrix you might pay for a mopping pad you'll never use on hardwood-only floors, or miss a self-empty dock that saves you weekly bin-emptying chores. A question-driven comparison lets you weigh what truly matters for your floor plan, pets, and allergies.
