Problem: Why Your Current Earbuds Just Don’t Cut It

The typical budget runner earbuds silence once you hit uneven pavement, get stuck in your ears, and die before the 10-mile mark. 1,200 gym members we surveyed told us the biggest pain points:
• Fit breaks down – The earbuds fell out after a single jab at a hill.
• Battery life – Nobody wants to carry a charger.
• Sound quality – In-the-middle-bass is essential but minimal in cheap models.
