Why a Robot Vacuum Matters in 2026

Modern homes demand floor care that keeps up with busy schedules, pets, and mixed flooring types. A robot vacuum should deliver at least 2,000 Pa suction, 90+ minutes of runtime, smart mapping, and optional mopping or auto-empty features to reduce hands-on maintenance.

Problem: You Want a Vacuum That Cleans and Empties Itself

Manually emptying a small dustbin after each run defeats the convenience of a robot, especially with pet hair or kids tracking dirt.

Trust: iRobot's Proven Track Record

iRobot has led the robot-vacuum market for over a decade, earning consistent high ratings for reliability, suction power, and smart navigation.
