Which model fits your lifestyle?

If you value hands-free emptying and want the dock to hold up to two months of debris, the Roomba 115X Combo + AutoEmpty Dock is the clear winner at $199.99. Its suction matches the base model, and the vibrating mop pad handles light spills effectively.

For those who prefer a lower upfront cost and don't mind emptying the bin manually, the Roomba 115X Combo (no dock) delivers the same cleaning performance for $139.99.

When runtime and suction power are top priorities—especially on larger homes or carpet-heavy floors—the Shark AI Ultra offers up to 2,500 Pa and 120 minutes of eco-mode runtime for $249.99. Its laser-based navigation maps rooms quickly, and the sonic mopping system tackles tougher stains.

The Shark AV2501S AI Ultra mirrors the AI Ultra's specs but often appears at a slightly lower price point; check the latest deal via this link if you want the Shark experience with a modest saving.
