Both achieve over 80% coverage on typical hardwood, tile and hybrid floors, which means you get reliable results without manual touch-ups.

5. How to Choose the Right Model

Ask yourself:

1. Do you have pets? Both robots work well, but the Shark’s brush roll cleans stubborn hair more aggressively.
2. Do you want a quieter operation? The Roomba 115X’s 55 dB is slightly lower.
3. Do you care about full-auto docking? Both use docks; the Roomba’s dock empties 30-hour and is easier to set up.

Whichever you pick, you’ll eliminate the 15-minute daily vacuum routine. Let the robot run on your schedule and enjoy more free time.
