Mopping Capability	Yes – Vacuum & Mop Combo	Yes – Vacuum & Mop Combo
Dock auto-empty frequency	Manual – you empty the bin every few days	Automatic – dock deposits debris into a sealed bag

Both models vacuum and mop, so the core cleaning power is identical. The AutoEmpty dock removes the hassle of pulling out the tiny onboard bin, letting the robot run for weeks without intervention—ideal for busy households or anyone who dislikes frequent maintenance.

If you're watching the wallet and don't mind a quick bin-empty every 3-4 days, the standard model delivers the same suction and mopping performance for $60 less.

Bottom line: Choose the AutoEmpty dock if you value true "set-and-forget" operation; otherwise, the standard model is a solid, budget-friendly pick.
